OFFICE OF THE DEVOE & PRATT MANUFACturing Company, 117 Fulton street, New York, March 2, 1663.—This Commany, 118 Fulton street, New York, March 2, 1663.—This Commany has been organized under the general manufacturing laws of this State, with all the facilities for considering its business to meet an unlimited demand for its products. All the peiroleum can and case manufactories and warehouses which were owned by Messrs, F. W. Devoe & Co. and Mr. Charles Pratt have been purchased by this company, together with their Patent Rights for the manufacture of the celebrated "Patent Can." Each of these parties were sweers of very valuable inventions, which, by this arrangement, will now be worked together, to the great additional strength and value of the Can. The Company has already secured very favorable arrangements for a large supply of 71n Plates, direct from the makers. This association of Interests—hitherto antagonistic—will now result in securing the lowest cost of all kinds of materials needed in the busness, and in the saving of many large expenses before made accessary to each imm. The Company is prepared to execute orders for the well known and reliable brands of "Refused Petroleum".—"Nonparell." "Crystal," "Brilliam," "Photolite" and "Sterling;" also Benzine and Spirits Turpentine, in every respect equal to any herelofore sent by Messrs, F. W. Devoe & Co. and Mr. Chas. Pratt, and as surrefully packed; and will be glad to treat with shippers and all other buyers on the most favorable terms.
